Home

Voted best "Bed & Breakfast"South Bend Tribune Reader's Choice award 2006, 07, 08, 09, 10 & 2011!

Midwest Living Magazine "Best of the Midwest" two years running.

In the style of a by gone era... The Beiger Mansion Inn invites you to experience a unique B and B. All the charm and grace of the early 1900's are featured. The Mansion, built by industrialist and self made millionaire, Martin V. and Susie Higgins Beiger.

The Mansion, a non-smoking B and B offers six lavishly appointed sleeping chambers. Queen sized sleigh beds or four posters, private baths, in room phone with voice mail and wake-up calls, cable TV (some with DVD and or VCR) and full breakfast in the State dining room are featured. We also offer a Master Suite with 4 poster bed, fireplace, and romantic antique tub for two plus separate shower. The second floor offers a computer workstation with printer and DSL internet access. The Mansion is also equipement with free internet WiFi. Free local calls. A complete workout/fitness center located on the lower level is not for the faint of heart. With over 1200lbs of free weights, hip and leg sleds, calve machine, Schwinn Airdyne and more, it is sure to satisfy the most demanding athlete. April through November enjoy our outdoor heated pool, hot tub and outdoor kitchen.

We are the areas premier event facility and available for receptions, weddings and business meetings with seating to 150. We have our own state-of-the-art sound system and lighting. Our friendly DJs can set the mood for your event or let us arrange live entertainment.